

English:

Fiction

Narratives: The Bear and the Hare.

Texts by Famous Authors: Clockwork by Phillip Pullman

Non Fiction

Persuasive Writing: Debate Violence in Video Games

Balanced Discussion: Use of technology in school

(Topic Based Literacy) Explanation Texts: Spy Manuals, Job Applications, Spy Profiles, Mission Plans

Non-Chronological Reports: Entertainment Systems

History & Geography

Spy Kids: Capital Cities and Countries

Inventions: Famous Inventors/Inventions across time

Religious Education

Celebrations and Festivals / Christmas Narratives

PSHE

Inspirational People: Steve Jobs, Ada Lovelace, etc.

E-Safety: how to be safe on the Internet, cyber bullying

Ark Swift
Primary Academy

Autumn 2 Year 6

Topic:

Spy Kids: Gadgets and Gizmos

Science: Conductors / Insulators

Investigate how some materials are better conductors of electricity than others.

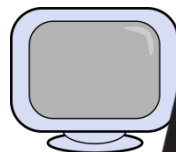

Investigate how some metals are good conductors of electricity while most other materials are not

DT/Art & Design

Remembrance: creating poppies

Using invisible ink to create spy messages

Designing a future invention

TOP SECRET

Maths Strand:

Fractions/ Decimals and Percentages

Comparing and ordering fractions including improper

Multiplying/Dividing Fractions

Decimal Place Value

Expressing remainders as fractions and decimals

Multiplying/dividing decimals

Equivalence between fractions, decimals and percentages

Fractions and percentages of amounts

Maths Meeting Focus:

Mental Calculation strategies / Time / Shape / Money

Music: Songs from the 1940's

P.E.

Team Games: Football Skills

Modern Foreign Languages: French

Places in town/ places to visit

Computing

Introduction to using Microsoft Surfaces

Rising Stars: We are cryptographers