

A message from the Principal, Jason Marantz

Dear Parents and Carers,

Support for Grenfell

We were all saddened to hear the news of the fire at Grenfell Tower earlier this week. I am touched by the sincere offers of support from our families and the good wishes from our children. Many of you wanted to do something.

Wear Green for Grenfell

On Friday 23 June 2017 we will join other West London School and will hold a day where we Wear Green for Grenfell.

Children are encouraged to wear something green and donate £1 towards charity. Parents are also encouraged to wear something green at drop off and pick up. All funds collected will be donated to the charities set up to support those affected by this tragic event.

We know that this has affected many of our families. Anyone who needs support should contact me through the school office

I wish you a peaceful weekend.

Jason Marantz, Principal

In this warm weather please ensure your children wear sunscreen, and bring a hat and a water bottle to school.

Remember, good attendance is linked to good progress in school.

Well done to all our Year 1 children who sat their phonics screening check this week.

Year 6 Children recognised for Remembrance Day Poetry receive their certificates

Last year, Year 6 were challenged to write poetry based around the themes of the First World War and remembrance. They used the Christmas Truce as a stimulus and created independent pieces as a result. The best poems were entered into the Never Such Innocence contest last year and now they received their certificates of commendation!

Miss Young, Bristol class teacher, remarked, "The children thought deeply about the environment and emotions of the time, Consequently, the poetry written was truly thought provoking and emotive. I hope they're all proud of their hard work!"

Here is one of the contest judge's thoughts: 'There are only a limited number of prize positions. But every child who entered a poem is already a winner because these children have had the chance to learn about – and learn from - an unparalleled time in our history. They have had a chance to read, to discuss, to look at images, to think, to feel, to write and to be read. And so all have a prize. And all have my sincere congratulations.' Michaela Morgan, author and poet: Poetry Judge

Year 4 Children caught enjoying their reading

This week Year 4 have started their new literacy unit on The Spiderwick Chronicles. They are really enjoying reading the books and writing about Pixies. A number of children finished it in a day!
